

INFORMATION PAGE

Nominees must have demonstrated extraordinary leadership, significant heroism, persistent effort and active achievement in making changes for the lives of homeless pets in our communities.

Public Servant

Eligible nominations in this category will be made for public servants of the community including, but not limited to: State or Government Officials residing in Camden County (examples include: Emergency services, [e.g. Fire, EMS, Law Enforcement, Search and Rescue, etc...]; Education, [e.g. state (public) schools, public universities, etc...]; healthcare, military, postal service, Social services, [e.g. public housing, social welfare, food subsidies, etc...]; Environmental protection)

Young Hero

Eligible nominations in this category will be made for individuals of the community that are at least ten years of age up to 18 years old. The nominee can have a project that is developed in or outside of the classroom, in conjunction with an organization, or can be an initiative or organization they started on his or her own or with their friends. Projects can provide a direct service, be philanthropic, or raise awareness or advocacy around the mission of Camden County Animal Shelter.

Noteworthy Volunteer

Eligible nominations in this category are for volunteers who go above and beyond the standard effort for the wellbeing of animals in our communities. Volunteers are the heart and spirit of our cause. They could be a committee chair that helped accomplish its goals, someone who started a group that didn't previously exist but was needed by the community, or any individual that has demonstrated excellent service in furthering the mission of Camden County Animal Shelter through their volunteer efforts.

Lifetime Pet Achievement

Eligible nominations in this category are for pets that have made an impact in the community by raising awareness and helping to support the efforts of Camden County Animal Shelter and its mission. They can be "celebrity" pets, pets that have overcome life altering odds, pets that have made a direct impact by increasing contributions, or pets that have made a heroic act in helping someone in need. This award is open to companion, shelter, fosters, and service pets (examples include: Law Enforcement/Public Safety, Search and Rescue, Therapy/Service, Guide/Hearing, etc...)

Charitable Business

Eligible nominations in this category are for businesses that have made a significant impact on the welfare of animals in our community. They can have made generous contributions of monetary donations, supplies, or volunteer teamwork on an organizational level.
